

The 44th Annual JHU Workshop

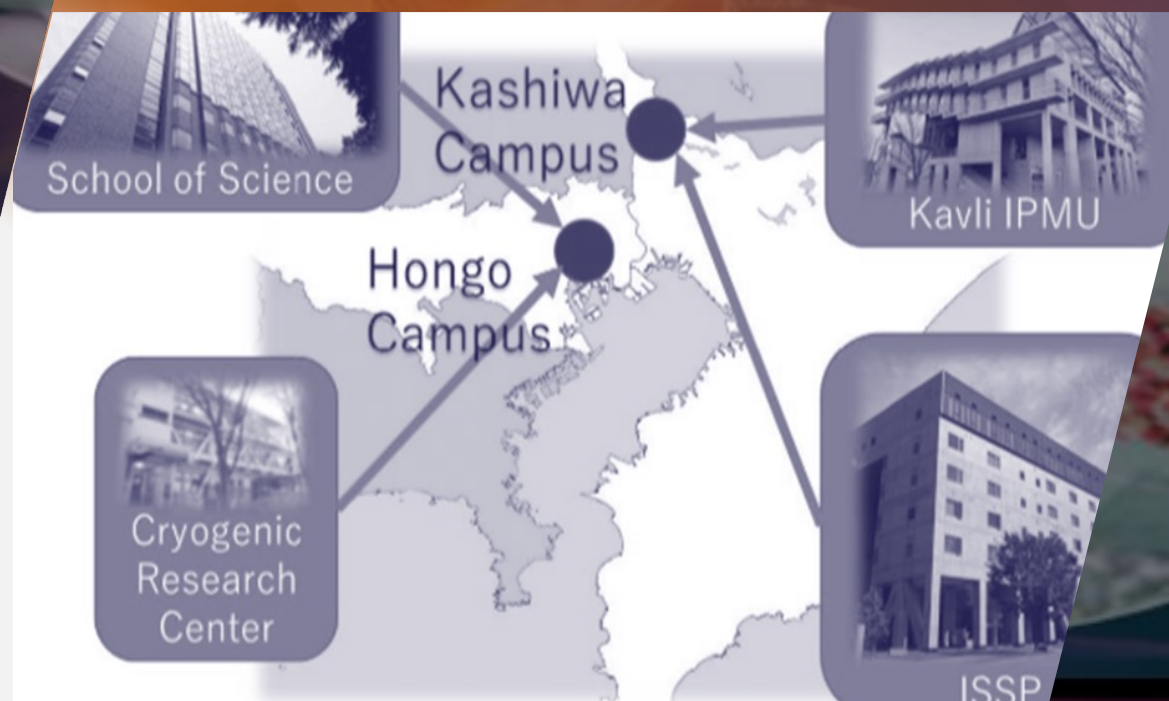

JHU/IPMU Workshop Series

Trans-Scale Quantum Science Institute (TSQSI)

Trans-Scale Quantum
Science Institute

- Driving interdisciplinary collaborations by linking UTokyo's world-class facilities with leading universities worldwide.
- Creating new concepts impacting all scales of physics, from subatomic level to cosmic scale
- Facilitating the development and societal implementation of quantum technologies

Quantum information
Entanglement
Tensor network
Strange metal
Table-top cosmology
Solid-state relativity
Topological materials

Code of Conduct

September 10, 2019

It is the policy of the Kavli Institute for the Physics and Mathematics of the Universe (Kavli IPMU) that all members and visitors will conduct themselves in a professional manner that is welcoming and free from any form of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation. Members and visitors will avoid any inappropriate actions or statements based on individual characteristics such as age, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, nationality, or political affiliation. Disruptive or harassing behavior of any kind will not be tolerated. Harassment includes but is not limited to inappropriate or intimidating behavior and language, unwelcome jokes or comments, unwanted touching or attention, offensive images, photography without permission, and stalking. Members and visitors will treat each other with respect to create a collegial, inclusive, and professional environment at the Kavli IPMU.
